

Discover an Entertainer's Delight in This Recently Updated Home with Extensive Floorplan

If you've been searching for a nicely updated home that includes every feature you could dream of, then look no further than 357 S. Cane Street.

Located just 10 minutes from Downtown Coeur d'Alene, this property is on a dead-end street with very little traffic, so noise is kept to a minimum. Even though this community was built in 2006, the subdivision's landscaping has had the opportunity to bloom allowing for mature trees and landscaping.

An Excellent Combination for Those Who Love Entertaining & the Outdoors

This home speaks to both those who love to entertain as well as those who love the outdoors. With over 4,000 square feet of living space, the open and functional floor plan offers the flexibility to warmly welcome guests. The quiet, tranquil backyard starts with a huge covered patio that is well-lit and overlooks the recently landscaped rear of the home surrounded by cedar fencing. In addition to the attached 3-car garage and RV parking space, plenty of storage can be found in the 12' x 16' storage shed.

And for the outdoor lover, the home is located less than a half a mile from beach access on the Spokane River. It's also close to multiple golf courses and ski resorts in addition to the Centennial Trail. Given its proximity to the Spokane River and Lake Coeur d'Alene, activities on the water are practically endless. You, family, and guests have the option to partake in cruises, rafting, kayaking, and fishing. Other activities in town and nearby include biking, culinary tours, summer theatre, and minor league hockey and baseball sporting events.

Keep the Party Indoors with a Spacious Kitchen and Living Room

Even if the weather is beautiful out, you may have a hard time getting family and guests to leave the kitchen and family area. An island has been added to enhance the already ample cabinets, counter tops, and storage featured in the kitchen. A dishwasher and built-in microwave have also been recently installed for added convenience.

You'll never get bored with where to serve meals as the dining room is surrounded by windows overlooking the beautifully landscaped backyard. There is also a bar to the side of the kitchen where at least four people can sit comfortably for an informal family meal, or guests can hang out while you mix drinks or whip up some appetizers.

Just on the other side of the bar area is the extensive living room. This room also has the benefit of abundant windows and a gorgeous gas fireplace with rock surround to further enhance atmosphere and warmth.

Spa-Like Master Bedroom and Bath Will Make You Feel Like You're on a Permanent Vacation

If you've ever enjoyed the look and feel of the suites at high-end quality hotels, then you will have an extremely challenging time leaving the master suite in this home.

This completely master suite was done with style and luxury in mind, and nowhere is this more true than when you enter into the connected master bath. You'll feel like you've walked into paradise with a 4' x 8' walk-in shower with large glass doors and marbled tile. You'll be amazed by the his and hers shower heads, body sprays, and wands after a long day at the office or a hard day playing outdoors.

An additional two bedrooms and bathroom are located on the first floor along with a laundry room that offers space for organizing and folding clothes.

Your Perfect Escape is Only a Few Steps Down Into the Lower Level

And if you're looking for an additional escape from everyday life, your perfect escape is only a few steps away in the finished basement.

You may even think you've stepped into another home as the basement features a large bar that easily seats 3 people for a quiet get together or hosting the big game. Speaking of sports, your guests will pick your house as the ultimate destination for games or TV season premieres with an area suited for a 110" screen that's ideal for theatre-style viewing.

There's also additional space for gaming, entertainment, or playing a game of pool. This lower-level space also works great for guests or older kids that require more privacy. They can choose from two different bedrooms located on the lower level as well as two full bathrooms for additional privacy and convenience.

Beautifully Updated Home with Spa-Like Features and Open Living Space

Priced at $519,000, this home offers an open floor plan that is ideal for entertaining and enjoying peace and quiet. Located on a dead-end street in a subdivision with no room for expansion, you will benefit from a tranquil environment with little to zero noise from traffic.

This 5 bed, 4 bath, is designed with space in mind and provides comfort for residents and guests alike. You'll have multiple options to enjoy your own private oasis outside on the large covered patio with a view of newly landscaped grounds, the spa-like shower in the luxurious master bath, or in the massively finished basement. You can also escape to the outdoors with multiple recreational activities available in and around the area.
